Please understand that this is a book aimed at elementary music educators. It is hand-written and includes no chords for accompaniment. It is mostly for the Kodaly-trained elementary music educator, and that educator will find it a gold mine! It is full of wonderful, authentic folk songs that include games that keep kids begging to play them again and again. Jill Trinka is a fantastic, master music educator. I highly recommend all four of these books/CDs, as well as her work with John Feierabend. (The Feierabend CDs are very well-produced and her singing and playing on them is beautiful...for your classroom or for your own children!) I HIGHLY recommend this book/CD if you are part of the select audience it is intended for.
